PRESENTING

<Music Through The Ages – with Special Presentation – Overview From Bach to Yiruma>

Sunday, October 18, 2020 from 2:00-5:00 pm

Reservations in advance required. Limited space available.

Cost per person $35.00

Enjoy a live music history documentary presentation that takes you through a timeline, from Baroque to Modern, of piano repertoire. A special informative “music through the ages” keep-sake guide will be given to guests.

Claudia Kargl, pianist- music educator-host, will enlighten you with factual references of Baroque, Classical, Romantic, Impressionist and Contemporary music that spans from 1685 to 2001. Key stylistic characteristics of each music age along with famous composers are to be highlighted. Claudia will explain each of her choice pieces before performing each selection in its entirety.

Included in the program are Bach, Scarlatti, Mozart, Beethoven, Schumann, Chopin, Debussy, Satie, Piazzolla, Yiruma and much more.

Viennese culinary delights made with heart and soul using the finest baking ingredients are planned to whet the appetite of guests during intermission. From Claudia’s extensive library, have the opportunity to eye over the sheet music of the choice pieces and be enlightened by a diverse variety of music and styles. A wonderful educational and inspiring music soiree for all ages (students, parents and seniors) not to be missed in a beautiful music-arts gallery studio garden oasis setting!
