The Salzburg Mozart Effect - Sunday, May 31st from 2:00-4:30 p.m.

“How powerful is your magic sound” – Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
born in Salzburg, died in Vienna

Experience the enhanced effects of listening to classic favorites of Mozart’s music which has been proven to hold the greatest esteem above all other music geniuses. The Magic of Mozart: his clarity, purity and simplicity in sounds, rhythms and melodies have been proven to stir the body, mind and human spirit. Be guided on a visit to the enchanting Baroque town of Salzburg, the birthplace of Mozart and a declared World Heritage site. An architectural treasure-trove, the old town’s quaint, narrow streets unite the many magnificent churches and palaces into a signal historical work of art rich in music and culture.

The Power of Beethoven - Sunday, June 14th from 2:00-4:30p.m.

“Don’t only practice your art but force your way into its secrets, for it and knowledge can raise men to the divine.” – Ludwig van Beethoven
born in Bonn, Germany, died in Vienna

Be empowered by the tidal waves of emotion in Beethoven’s music. His life-story is shrouded in myth and misunderstanding. Be enlightened by the true story that reveals much more. Beethoven inspires awe not only as being one of the greatest composers in history, but also for his qualities as a man: his vision, his personal dignity, pride, idealism and genuine heroism. Beethoven’s Nine Symphonies changed the world. His 9th Symphony “Ode to Joy” became an Ode to Freedom and a turning point in history and for mankind.

“Vienna Classics” - Sunday, July 5th from 2:00-4:30p.m
The City of Music, Culture, Charm, Chocolate & the Famous Kaffeehaus (Coffeehouse)

A Salute to Vienna! Vienna’s past is alive in its present day. The City of Music with her extensive musical and cultural heritage speaks volumes. Enjoy famous Viennese musical classics. This place has been a crossroad between eastern and western Europe and a meeting ground where countless musicians, artists and poets came to be seen and heard. Vienna holds on to its traditions and incorporates them today in extended forms of creative and artistic expression. Incredible renowned venues set the stage for world class musical performances. Splendid buildings from the Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque eras are huddled together along narrow cobblestone streets and medieval squares. The historic town centre encircling “The Ring” has been honoured as a World Heritage Site. Enjoy a refreshing glimpse into what makes Vienna such a special music-arts-culture-culinary treat!
